SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD

A World Representative's Experience as a Sewing Girl.

PRICE ONE CENT.

cororio.

WHITE SLAVE GIRLS

A Feature of New York's Struggle for

SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Representative's Experience as a Sewing Girl.

Server programme and the commence of the comme

PRICE ONE CENT.

O'CLOCK

A BLOW BUT NO BLOODSHED.

THRILLING TALES OF WAR BETWEEN IMPULSIVE THEATRICAL MEN.

A Case of Nose-Pulling Which Is Both Affirmed and Denied-Just After Somebody's Cane Fell on Somebody Else's Shoulder a Policeman Interrupted Promising Conflict on Broadway.

War, wordy but thus far bloodless, has been declared between Marcus R. Mayer, of Theatrical Manager Henry E. Abbey's staff, and Wolf F. Falk, ex-Treasurer of the Standard Theatre.

Two battles have already been fought, but to-day a temporary truce was declared through the interposition of a stronger power-the law. The first encounter was between the main bodies of the opposing forces and the battleground was the cafe of the Coleman House. As is usual when a great battle is fought, the accounts describing it were widely divergent, but THE EVENING WORLD'S COTTEspondents with each army agree that the battie was a decisive victory for Mayer.

Mr. Falk's story is to the effect that he was sitting in the cafe of the Coleman House, Thursday evening when Marcus R. Mayer and David Peysor, another of Mr. Abbey's staff of sgents, entered. Mayer came over to the table where he was dining with a friend, Charles F. Gall, of 45 West Twenty-eighth street, and shook hands with Falk, greeting him pleasantly.

Falk says that Mayer then remarked: "I don't like the company you're in," in a voice intended for Mr. Gail's ears.

"I resented th suse of me to slap my friend in the face," said Mr. Faik, "and told Mr. Mayer what I thought of his conduct. He responded with an assault upon me as I sat at the table. Marcus g abbed me by the nose and left this mark," and Mr. Falk ex-hibited a livid scratch on the right side of his nose as the result of the belligerent Mayer's encounter in the café, Mr. Falk said. The encounter in the cafe, Mr. Falk said, was but a preliminary skirmish, and the base of operations was changed to the sidewalk in front of the hotel, where Falk said he was outgeneraled and outnumbered, and suffered ignominious defeat through an attack on the lett flank by the right wing of hiayer's army in the person of David Peyser.

He retreated in a demoralized condition, but reformed his forces for an attack next day.

day.

This is the Falk story of the first engagement. Those of Mayer and Peyser agree with it in crediting a deteat to Fak, and Gen. Mayer, in his story to The Evening World, acknowledges Gall to have been the casus

The second engagement between the opposing forces occurred at 5,20 last evening.
A detachment of Mayer's army, numbering about 65 in hes and 110 pounds, commanded by Peyser, had taken u. position in front of the Bijou Theatre, when it was surprised by a superior force of the enemy, led by Com-mander Falk. This army outnumbered Mayer's forces by about one inch and ten ounds.

There was a short, sharp and fierce en counter between the opposing forces, and when the smoke of battle cleared away both armies were in full retreat for the Thirtieth street police station.

The law had interfered, and the belligerents were in custody of Patrolman Gallagher.

Here again the accounts of battle differ. From the Peyser side comes the story that

From the Peyser side comes the story that Falk was the aggressor; that Falk opened fire with a proposition to have out the affair of the previous evening. Peyser desired a change of base to Thirty-first street, around the corner but Falk was satisfied with his position and fired his first volley by spitting in Peyser's face. To this Peyser replied with a right downward cut from his cane worthy of a master of the broadsword, and then—the policeway.

policeman.

Falk says that Peyser had been boasting to his friends that he had whipped Falk the night before, and that he was walking about with a pair of eyes decorated in blue and old gold.

He asked Peyser why he had done this, and his only reply was a crushing blow on his (Falk's) erby hat. Mr. Falk denied spitting in Mr. Peyser's face,

Both men were arraigned before Justice Ford at Jefferson Market this morning and discharged.

Mr. Mayer was present, as was also Mr.
Gall, the cause of the trouble, a mild-mannered young man whom Mr. Mayer persisted in referring to as Gall alias Funkenstein.

Rolles Held for Malpractice. Frederick Rolins, of 332 East Thirty-third street. this city, who is charged with administering medicine to Nelly Lawrence for a criminal purpose, was one to Neily Lawrence for a criminal parpose, was resterday brought up for examination before Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, and held in $5,000 to await the action of the Grand Jury.
Rolins made a general denial. The girl is still sick at the house of Mary Eennett, 55 West Third street, Hunter's Point.

Owney Bruen Goes to Sing Sing. Owney Bruen, the chleftain of the Whyo gang. who was sentenced by Recorder Smyth for nine years and three months for assault on Grocer Bruns, of 33 Park street, was taken to Sing Sing this morning by Deputy Sheriff "Joe" Burks.
He left the Tombs at 12 o'clock shackled to twelve other pri-olers wh; were to keen him company in State prison. The sentence may be reduced by commutation for good behavior to six years and twenty-three days.

For Pepublicans Who Want to Bet.

PODGHKERPSIE, N. Y., S pt. 22. -A well-known Democrat in this city has written to the Dady News Press here offering to wager $100 that Cleveland will carry New York State, $100 that Cleveland will carry New York State, $100 that Hill will be re-elected, lie will double these amounts if need be. Richard Alken will wager $10,000 in sums to suit any one who thinks Cleveland will not be elected.

"IF a woman is pretty,

"IF a woman is pretty,
To me 'its no matter
Be she olonde or brunette,
So she lets me look at her."
An unhealthy woman is rately, if ever, beautiful. The peculiar diseases to which so many of the sex are subject, are prolinc causes of sale, sallow faces, ulotthed with unstinuty pimples, dull lastreless eyes and emaclated forms. Women so afflicted can e permanently cured by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and with the restoration of health comes that beauty which, combined with good qualities of head and heart, combined with good qualities of head and heart, combined with good qualities of head and heart, makes women angels of loveliness. "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, inder a peatine guarantee from the manufacturers to at it will give satisfaction in every case or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. ACCUSED OF BIG FORGERIES.

Auctioneer Greenbaum Accuses Goldstein of a $30,000 Defalcation.

Meyer Goldstein, twenty-six years, employed as a clerk by Morris Greenbaum, suctioneer, of 353 Canal street, was charged with extensive forgeries, amounting to $30,000, in the Tombs Court this morning. Auctioneer Greenbaum in his affidavit, which was laid before Justice White this morning, alleges that Goldstein, on the 9th day of May, presented a check drawn on the Importers and Traders' Bank, payable to Marshall & Briggs for the sum of $637.28, to Greenbaum for his signature, the latter supposing it was for some goods which Goldstein represented had been purchased for the firm and exhibited the invoice for them, signed the check and gave it to Goldstein, who altered the names of the payees to Myershall B. Boeiggson on the check and forged the indorsement on the back of the check. He then presented it at the bank and got the money.

Another check for $13,675 on the same bank was also forged and cashed at the same bank. Goldstein has male a confession, which the affidavit refers to as being attached thereto, but at the request of the defendant it was secreted and not attached to the papers.

In the affidavit it is stated Goldstein has charged with extensive forgeries, amounting

In the affidavit it is stated Goldstein has confessed to the forgeries and signed over two houses and lots and household furniture, valued at $9,000, to his employers on their promise of immunity.

He sppeared very much affected at the discovery of his crime and promised to do all that he could to restore the stolen funds. His wife was present in court at the examination, which was only formal and conducted with great secrecy.

He pleaded not guilty, but reserved his defense. Justice White held him in $5,000 bail for trial at General Sessions.

A MISSING FATHER.

John Suarino's Children Say His Wife Spir ited Him Awny.

Mrs. Lena Vaso and Martin Suarino obtained a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Barrett, in Supreme Court, Chambers, today, requiring their mother, Julia Suarino, to produc their father, John, in court next Tuesday merning.

They allege in their petition that their father is insane, has paralysis of the brain and has been unable to attend to his business for some time. He owns the property 33 and 39% Baxter street, worth it is claimed, $50,000. The father and mother lived at 33 Baxter street, and, it is alleged, the mother keeps him a prisoner there and insufficiently provides for him. Nicoalo and Camillo Suarino, other children were driven from the house by the mother. On the 21st inst., Lena and Martin went to the house and found the father con-went to the house and found the father confined to a room, where he was trying to eat a loaf of bread.

At midnight last night the father and mother moved elsewhere, and the petitioners have been unable to discover their where abouts. It is claimed the father made a will by which he gives his property, share and share alike, to his children, and that the mother knows this and wants to get him to mother knows this and wants to get him to deed it to her so she can sell it and with the proceeds go to Italy.

MANAGER FAIS SHED TEARS OF JOY.

harles Weeks, a Property Man, Stole Miss Paullin's $1.500 in Philadelphia.

INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—There was a genuine sensation in court here this morning when District-Attorney Graham interrupted the progress of the defense in the trial of Stage Manager Fais, of the Carleton Opera Company, who was accused by Miss Louise E. Paullin of the larceny of $1,500 of money, which was taken from her in May, 1886, at the Chestnut Street Theatre, and stated that he desired to produce a witness who at that stage of the proceedings should be permitted to give his evidence.

The witness proved to be the property man of the Chestnut Street Theatre, Charles Weeks, who stated that he had found the $1,500 lost by Miss Paullin on the day following the faint on the dressing-room floor. He had spent $1,000 of it and the other $500, together with $200 of his own legacy, with the interest thereon, he wished to turn over to Miss Pau lin.

Fais burst into tears at this his vindication.

The Manchester Races.

[BT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.]
LONDON, Sept. 22.—The great race to-day was for the Lancashire Plate, valued at $60,000.

It was won by Seabreeze, who was the favorite throughout; Ayrshire was second and Le Sancy third. The betting at the start was as follows: Five to 2 against Seabreeze, 5 to 1 against Ayrshire, 10 to 1 against Le Sancy.

The attendance was enormous, and the race was as interesting as one can be which results in accordance with the betting.

Yonkers Entries for Monday. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I YONKERS, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Following are the entries at Yonkers for Monday, Sept. 24.

First Hace Beaten norses; ave and a nair furiougs Mazumah. Livi Alveda. 1 Telegraph 118 Burgundia. Saluda. 110 Burgundia. Tong Freter. 110 Ann. 1 Tong Freter. Selling allowances; six furiongs.
Parkville. 133 Standiford Keliar. 1 Wossel 133 Trojan 1 Suring Breeze. 129 Warren Lewis. 1 Third Race.—Selling allowances: seven and a highly colours.
Johnny F
Battledore
Clay Pate 120 Vigilant

"Our Firemen" and the Relief Fund. Mr. Augustine E. Costello, the publisher of "Our Firemen," has refunded the price of the book to Mr. S. Dessau, the John street jeweller, who citimed that an agent had sold it on a misrepre septation.

Mr. Costello's orders to his agent are not to make Mr. Costellow orders to his agent are not to make any statements beyond what is shown in the letter from the Fire Department, which says that the publication is authorized by them on condition of a certain sum given by the publisher to the Fire-men's Reitef Fund.

Doctoring Without a License, The County Medical Society caused the arrest of Leon Kherarg, of 67 Norfolk street, to-day, for practising medicine without a license. He was held for tital by Justice White in the Tombs Court Stopped the Non-Union Workers. Delegates from the Paper-Hangers' Union formed M. F. Lyons that non-union men were at work on his restaurant, 459 and 261 Bowery. Mr. Lyons at once ordered the work stopped until the men joined the union.

DAVY'S FATHER WILL SUE

PRINCIPAL MURPHY'S CASE TO GO TO A CIVIL COURT.

The Brooklyn School Tencher Was Not Held For Assaulting His Pupil, This Morning -Justice Massey Believed He Had Not Exceeded Authority or Reason in the Principal Thomas D. Murphy of Public School, No. 30, Brooklyn, who was charged with beating little eleven-year-old Davie Burnside black and blue on Sept. 13, was up before Justice Massey for examination this morning.

Davie was there with his mother and Martin Flannagan, his lawyer, and Principal Murphy was also on hand with a host of friends, among them some of the trustees of his ward and teachers of the school and Lawyer and teachers of the school and Lawyer Horace Graves, to defend him from the charge. Assault in the third degree was what the law er called it.

Davie, who was the first witness, told his side of the story. He insisted that he had not been a bad boy in school and that he was only inattentive. His teacher had not spoken to him more than six times since he had been attending the school, which was nearly two weeks.

When asked to describe the whipping he said that Principal Murphy took him out into the corridor and told him to hold out his hand. He did so and was struck three times with a rattan three feet long and as thick as with a ratian three feet long and as thick as his middle finger.

When he refused to hold his hand up any longer the Principal hit him five or six times on the legs. He stood it as long as he could, and then started to run away down the stairs. Principal Murphy ran after him and grabbed him by the collar, tearing it off. He then took him upstairs, gave him another whacking on the legs and body, and then made him sit on the platform in the first class room in front of all the scholars until 3 o'clock.

When he got home he showed his mother his bruises, which had swelled his limbs so that he could scarcely walk, and she put him to bed. He said the bruises were there yet, and told how his father carried him over to the police station and a doctor examined him.

m. No other witnesses were examined for the

No other witnesses were examined for the complainant's side.

Miss Givany, the under teacher who sent Davie to the Principal to be flogged, said that she had spoken to the boy on several occasions for inattention and playing in school. On the afternoon in question she took a card away from him that he was playing with, and soon after question she took a card away from him that he was playing with, and soon after saw him playing with a little wheel. Davie had been sent down to see the Principal and get a lecture in the morning for looking off his book and smiling, and his playfulness in the afternoon was regarded as such a heinous offense that he was sent down again, for Miss Gilvany said that it had a most demoralizing effect on the class.

offense that he was sent down again, for Miss Gilvany said that it had a most demoralizing effect on the class.

Principal Murphy, in his own defense, admitted the general truth of the boy's story of the flogging, although he gave a somewhat different account of the order of the various stages in the flogging process, and added that when he took the boy into the school-room and told him to sit on the end chair on the platform, he gat on every other chair first, and made the scholars laugh. He thought the punnshment had been reasonable, and that he was acting within his authority, and he manifested considerable ire when his knowledge of the law was questioned.

Judge Massey discharged the defendant, because he said it had not been shown by the testimony that the punishmeni inflicted had been unreasonably severe, and the teacher was acting within the authority given him by the rules of the School Board.

Lawver Flannagan said he would begin a suit against Princ pal Murphy for damages, Davie has not attended the school since he was flogged.

TRIED TO WRECK THE BOAT TRAIN.

Was Averted Thursday Night.

TAUNTON, Mass., Sept. 22.—The facts connected with a mysterious attempt on Thursday night to wreck the boat train which leaves Boston at 7 P. M. on the Old Colony and runs express to Newport have just come

It seems that on that night, with the train running at about forty miles an hour, the engineer noticed a man on the track near engineer noticed a man on the track near the Raynham Station signalling him to stop. He brought the train to a standstill, and the man, who is said to have been a former employee of the road, in-formed him that he had detected two men engaged in placing obstructions on the track, and which he had not time to remove. The trainmen found a rail and some sleepers thrown across the rails some distance ahead. The man furnishing the information could give no description of the men who did this heimous deed, and he was carried to Fall River and later to Supt. Kendrick to be

Mrs. Asher Wanted Blood.

.. Nobody living in the house could understand her actions for the past month," said Aaron Thinible, of 72 Lewis street, as a middle-aged woman named Flora Asher was led before Justice Duffy in the Essex Market Police Court this morning.

Last night she ran around the room with a big knife, saying she would kill anybody who came near her."
Mrs. Asher was committed for examination as to Winning the Postal Clerks' Battle.

State Senator Edward F. Reilly and a committee of the New York Post-Office Clerks' Association are in Washington urging the passage of Congressman Cox's Classification bill, which provides for the equalization of the salaries of cierks in first-class post-offices and their appointment by the Postmaster-General.
They telegrapu that success is assured.

Kramer Bested Him in Court. Two waiters, Alfred Kramer of 494 Eas wenty-fourth street, and Joseph Braunflof 35 Broome street, got into a quarrel over serving a customer, and Kramer was badly worsted, had his eyes blackened and a finger of his hand broken. Braun was held in the Es Market Police Court tals morning for trial.

"Ten days," said Justice Duffy in Essex Market Police Court to-day to Jacob Axe, who was charged with kicking and otherwise maltreating his wife. The Justice added: "I would have given you three months but for the pleading in your behalf of your lorgiving wife."

To Jail for Forty-Five Cents. Bertha Fretag, of 581 East Eighty-fifth street, was arraigned in Essex Market Police Court today for shoplitting. In Ridley's dry-goods store been abducted from her home, 122 East One Hundred and Twentieth street, by Olaf P. Nelson, another resident, was returned to her home to-day by Mrs. Neison. She said her husband had no intention of kidnapping the They Had Escaped from the child.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1888.

Detectives Mott and Price, of the One Hundred and Twenty-sixih street station, worked on the case the greater portion of the night.

It is said that Nelson, who lived with his wife on the second floor of the house in which the Kecks live, sold his household ef-which the Kecks live, sold his household effects, which consisted of a stove, bedstead, two tables and a bedspring, to M. J. Sheridan, of 1271 Third avenue, for $25. He was paid yesterday morning.

He then went upstairs to the Kecks' apartments and asked permission to take Lizzie down to their new home. Mrs. Keck consented and dressed the little girl up in her Sunday clothing. Mrs. Keck said that Lizzie might stay until Monday morning, and Nelson promised to bring her home by that time.

time.
Lizzie went away at 11 o'clock without bidding her mother good by. Later in the day she was worried by hearing from the neighbors that Nelson had said he was going to Chicago, and early in the evening she re-ported the matter to the police. Sergt. Sul-livan, who was on duty at the time, detailed his detectives on the case and sent out a gen-his detectives on the case and sent out a general alarm.

Mrs. Keck is a German and can't speak a word of English. The family consists of herself, husband, three girls and a boy in arms. Mary, the oldest child, told the above story to an Evening World reporter this morning. She speaks English and German and attends the German school in One Hundred and Nineteenth street, where her missing sists also studied.

and attends the German school in One Hundred and Nineteenth street, where her missing sister also studied.

M. J. Sheridan, the second-hand furniture man, said that when he went to pay the $25 for the furniture, Nelson invited him in to sit down, and sent the girl Lizzie for a can of beer, and while she was absent he began to talk of travelling, and said he was going to Chicago. He added that he had been all over the world except in Greece. Sheridan questioned him and he said he was a sailor—a ship's carpenter and joiner.

When the girl returned she handed Nelson two cents change, and he told her goodnaturedly to put it in her pocket. His wife objected, saying that it was a poor plan to allow children to get in the way of spending money foolishly. Nelson then said: "Oh, let the child alone. When I get her away from this I will teach her new habits, and will give her an education such as she is not getting here."

BEDELL'S VICTIMS ANXIOUS.

Who Makes Good the $264,000 Which Bar low, Larocque & Chonte's t lerk Stole ?

No new victims of James E. Bedell's inrenious system of forgery have developed to-day, and it is probable that the entire amount of his stealings is but $264,000, which he acknowledged.

The question now which agitates every body interested except Bedell, who is extremely nouchalant, is: Who is liable civilly to the defrauded parties?

Ex-Judge Shipman, of Shipman, Barlow, Larocque & Cheate, in the name of which firm the gigantic frauds were consummated, in answer to all questions propounded, said that the firm has nothing further to say regarding the matter.

that the firm has nothing further to say regarding the matter.

All of the victims, including the Farmers' to an and Trust Company, which is responsible to the Delmonico estate for about one-half of the sum stolen by Bedell, are waiting, confidently expecting the law firm to make good their loss which it is abundantly able to do. If it does not soon take steps looking toward settlement actions to recover the different amounts due will probably be commenced against the firm.

Though no member of the firm had said so. it is thought tast they think the Broadway Bank liable for the loss for having cashed the forged checks presented by Lawyer Henry, through Bedell.

through Bedell.

Bed II was taken to the Tembs Police Court this morning by Police Capt. Mc-Laughlin, of the First Precinct, and again remanded until Thursday morning, when an examination in his case will be had. No affidavits have yet been submitted charging him with any offense.

It is said that Bedell is furnishing his victims with all the information possible to bring to light his many forgeries of past years.

years. Charles B. Fitzpatrick, of 47 Great Jones street, gave ball in the Tombs Court this morning in $5,000 each for Joseph Emerson and Philip Goss, the policy dealers with whom Bedell alleges he lost over $125,000 of the money stolen from his employer's clients.

A Romance from Poland. Gregory Kovalski, of 108 Essex street, Jersey

City, a young Polack, and Anastasia Mitkiewich, of the same address, were married by Justice Weed at his office on Gregory street, Jersey City, this morning. Gregory and Anastasia were playmates in Poland, and came over to America on the same in Poland, and came overgo America on the same ship.

lie found work in a sugar refinery as a boiler, and she found employment at Yonkers. Both have been here only a month. There was evidently some understanding between the two. Only a few days ago one Mary Chiuchewer, also a Pole, had Gregory arrested for alleged betraval, claiming mat he had promised to marry her, and they had lived as man and wife at her brother's house. She falled to prove previous good character, and the case was dismissed.

Held for Shooting His Wife

Benjamin Collins, who snot his wife at their home, 239 West Thirtieth street, on the 11th inst. was arraigned in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day. The woman has been in Rossevelt Hospital since the shooting and was not able to be present in court. The complaint was made by her daugh-ter, aged fourteen, who witnessed the shooting. Collins claimed that the shooting was accidental. Justice Ford held him in $2,000 ball for trial.

Does your trife play the planof. Or, if you have no wife, perhaps your test girl does. If such be the case, don't fail to get next Sunday's World, which will contain a most exquisite ballad, entitled " With All Her Faults I Love Her Still, written by that enthant composer, Mr. M. H. Rosenfeld. It will be sung by the famous tenor Mr. Dick José at Dockstader's Refined Minstrels, on Monday evening for the Arst time, A copy free WITH THE SUNDAY WORLD.

The steamer Etruria, which arrived from Liverpool to-day, made the passage in six days two bours. The best time ever made over this course by any vessel was made by the same ship on her westward trip in June last—six days one hour and fity-five minutes.

The Etruria Is a Past Ouc.

A Splendid Novel Complete, with a spiendid newspaper, for a cents. Buy to-morrow's Journal containing D. Christie Murray's novel, "THE LAST CARD,

To-Day.

Quarantine in Florida.

to North Brother's Island. Two yellow-fever refugees from an infected Florida town were arrested in this city to-day. They had escaped from a point in Florida where they were to have been held for a ten days' quarantine. After their arrest in New York, they were taken to North Brother's Island to finish up their term of quarantine.

Health Officers Commit Them Promptly

Their names are withheld. The local health authorities claim to be in such close communication with the quarantines in Florida that escapes are immediately known, and no refugees can reach this city without being immediately apprehended.

A REIGNING TERROR.

The Whole South in Fear of the Fever Scourge.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 22.—The sad tale of the yellow-fever scourge grows more sombre as the days go by. Each day adds a chapter full of pathos and replete with Bad weather, good weather, makes no difference. The list of dead swells and the stricken are numbered by the score each day.

The people are in a state of abject terror and the panic has spread to every hamlet in the State—has gone even across the lines and into other States.

into other States.

Jacksonville is shut out from the world.
Cities have barricaded against her people, and wherever it is announced that a Jacksonvillian has arrived, a stampede follows as surely as the night follows day.

Reason is banished, and fear, abject and cringing, takes her place.

At noon to-day thirty-two new cases have been reported by the yellow fever physicians, and that makes 1,614 cases authenticated at the Health Office up to this time. Four deaths reported this morning, make the total exactly 200.

the Health Office up to this time. Four deaths reported this morning, make the total exactly 200.

And this, out of a total population of about sixteen thousan i, fully half of whom fied before the scourge got fairly started on its devastating career!

What wonder that the people of this deserted city are frightened and panic stricken! And the refugees—exiles from their houses—telling the tales which their letters bring them to the people at the places of refuge spread the panic in all directions, so that the whole South is in a state of fear.

In this city great difficulty has been experienced in supplying food and medicines to all the needy, and to-day special commissary branches are being established in various quarters of the city, and the physicians have all been provided with slips on which to write orders for provisions for needy people whom they may find on their rounds. Prescriptions have been abandoned each physician being supplied with all the necessary drugs and other material, which they now carry with them and dispense as they go, and each doctor now wears a yellow badge to distinguish him, so that he may be stopped by those who need his services. This was made necessary by the influx of strange physicians. These changes were made at the suggestion of Dr. J. Y. Porter, in command physicians. These changes were made at the physicians. These changes were made at the suggestion of Dr. J. Y. Porter, in command of the Government nurses.

Southmayd has been returned to New Orleans, as he interfered with Dr. Porter's work, and one Dr. Groossort, of New Orleans. leans, has been sent home, convicted of un-professional conduct.

Mr. Drake, who came in charge of Harry

Mr. Drake, who came in charge of Harry Miner's nurses, has become a great favorite with Dr. Neal Mitchell, and has been sent to Sand Hills Hospital, where Miss Alton, his fiancee, is also nursing bravely.

Outside of Jacksonville in this State confusion more confounded hovers over all. St. Augustine and Palatka have quarantined against each other, and Gainesville is isolated, although there have appeared no new cases in either place. Live Oak has placed a cordon about herself, admitting no one within her precincts, and Alachna. Brerard and Polk counties will not receive mail from Jacksonville even.

Jacksonville even.
Waycross, Ga., has rigidly quarantined against Gainesville, Fernandina and Wilbour, and a rigid house to house inspection has been instituted, and a "note of warning" has been sounded to arouse the health authorities of Savannah, Brunswick and other places.

The Jacksonville Committee acknowledge the receipt of $14,000 during the past twenty-four hours from other cities, and immediate want is kept from the city.

THE PANIC AT JACKSON. Jackson, Aiss., Sept. 22.—Eight cases have developed here, with two deaths. Excavations and filthy sewers are the conceded causes of the fever. Fully three-fourths of the white population have fied. The Howard Association of 1878 has been reorganized and is hard at work. Trains are forbidden to step here, but people are leaving as fast as they can. Provisions and money are scarce.

MEMPHIS FEVERLESS, BUT FEARFUL. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 22.—This city has seen no yellow fever yet, but with the experience of a few years ago fresh in the mind there is a feeling of fear fresh upon all. All trayel into Memphis from the East will be stonged and a pon-intercourse quarantine stopped, and a non-most stopped, and a non-most established.

A SHOTOUN QUARANTINE.

Sept. 22.—A sho and a non-intercourse quarantine

Grenada Miss., Sept. 22.—A shotgun quar-antine against Decatur, Jackson and other infected places has been established here and at Corinth, and the Himois Central trains from the south will make no stops between Canton, Miss., and Cairo, Ill. NEW ORLEANS NOT SCARED.

NEW OBLEANS, Sept. 22.-No yellow fever scare here. METHODS OF '78 RENEWED.

NATCHEZ, Miss., Sept. 22.—An excursion party of 300 people who went from this city to Jackson Thursday has been shut out, so rigid is the quarantine, and all trains on the Natchez, Jackson and Columbus road beyond Hamilton have been stopped. This policy saved the city in 1878.

AN ILLINOIS TOWN QUARANTINED. Carro, Ill., Sept. 22.—This city has been quarantined against the South, and Illinois Central and Mobile and Ohio trains are not allowed to land passengers.

DECATUR'S PANIC. DECATUR, Ala., Sept. 22.-Every store in | Only 4 censs.

LITTLE LIZZIE BACK HOME.

Olaf Nelson Save He Had No Intention of Kidnapping the Child.

Lizzie Keck, the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Keck, who, it was thought, had been abducted from her home, 122 East One

Two of Them Arrested in This City

this city is closed, and two-thirds of the population has left town. Physicians carry keys to the drug stores, and panic has seized upon everybody. This is because the doctors have issued a bulletin declaring that there are seven cases of yellow fever in town. People and every house within ten miles of Decatur is full.

LOUISVILLE'S OPEN DOORS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 22.—Mayor Jacob called a meeting of physicians and merchants last night, and after much discussion, in which the physicians assured the rest that there could be no danger to the city in admitting yellow-fever refugees provided proper precantions were taken, the meeting decided to extend an invitation to all who desired to come. desired to come. HENDERSONVILLE WAS SLANDEDED.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Sept. 22.—The story that this city was imposed upon and is indignant over the arrival here of a horde of paupers and yellow fever patients is utterly false. The 267 refugees from Jacksonville, within forty-five minutes after their arrival, were safely quartered and comfortable in the best hotels and boarding-houses in town. There were only ten cases of yellow fever and only two have died. No other refugees will e received, however. GAINESVILLE GETTING OVER IT. GAINESVILLE, Fla., Sept. 22,—No new cases are reported. All but one of the patients are recovering rapidly.

REFUGEES GOING NORTH. CHIGAGO, Sept. 22.—Seventy refugees from Decatur, Ala., came north on a train on the Illinois Central yesterday and were dropped off all along the line after passing Cairo. No danger is apprehended.

AID FOR JACKSONVILLE,

The Telegraphers Should Be Largely Remembered in the Generous Offerings.

THE WORLD has headed with a $100 sub scription its fund for the benefit of the faithful telegraph operators at Jacksonville and is ready to receive all contributions for that purpose. Several additions to the fund have already been received, and further responses should be prompt and generous. The following artists have volunteered to assist at the performance in aid of the Jacksonville sufferers on Thursday afternoon next at the Casino: Miss Fannie Rice, Miss Isabella Urquhart, Mrs. Ellis Ryse, Miss Sylvia Gerrish, Miss Kate Uart, Mr. James T. Powers, Mr. Fred Solomon, Mr. Mark Smith, Mr. Henry Hallam, Mr. Jesse Williams, Mr. Arthur W. Tams. "Nadjy" will be performed, and the ballet will interpret a new minuet arranged by Maestro Bibeyrau, Mr. Rudolph Arenson to-day received a cordial letter from Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, President of the Ladies' Jacksonville Relief Society, thanking himself and his company for their kindly profiered aid.

Hattie Kahn, a bright little miss who lives at 203 First avenue, has been around among the neighbors and collected $7.30 for the Jacksonville sufferers. Hattle is eleven years old.

The following letter was received at the is ready to receive all contributions for that old.

The following letter was received at the Produce Exchange to-day:

Produce Extension of the Mann, seq. DEAR Six: Under cable instructions received this morning from Mr. H. W. Smithers, Great Baddow, England, I hand you herewith check on the Manhattan Company to your order for $100 for the benefit of the yellow-fever fund. Yours very truly.

J. H. Honsey. The subscriptions of $20 each from G.
Balch and E. C. Bodemann were also received at the Produce Exchange.
At the Stock Exchange the following were

At the Stock Exchange the following were received:

8. A. Hollins. $10
Dominick & Dickerman. 50
The Mayor's fund for the yellow-fever sufferers received to-day an increase of $664.50.

Mrs. Proctor Sails for Europe Mrs. Richard A. Proctor, whose husband died recently of yellow fever, sailed for Europe to-day from this city.

BOSTON BALDHEADS LINE THE AVENUE. Miss Pauline Hall Takes Daily Exercise Astride a Bicycle.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, BOSTON, Sept. 22. -Stately Pauline Hall, nore stately than usual, created a faror of excitement by appearing on Columbus avenne yesterday afternoon on her bicycle. She had it brought over from New York Thurs-day night for the especial purpose of taking exercise every afternoon during her engagenent, The streets were muddy yesterday and ha dly fit for elegant bicycling, but the queenly Pauline stuck to her work for some ime, only returning to the Thorndike when her dress and skirts were covered with mud. Weather permitting, Pauline will ride every afternoon on the Union Athletic Grounds. She says bicycles develop the muscles in her egs.

Pauline doesn't dream that the newspapers know of her unique method of advertising— beg pardon—exercising. Weather and the Boston policemen permitting, that portion of Dartmouth street overlooking the Union Grounds will be occupied this afternoon at 5 o'clock by Boston's bald-headed and cul-tured citizens who are "fond of the opera, ou know."

Pauline may conclude, if the sightseers on Pauline may conclude, if the sightseers on Dartmouth street become too numerous to indulge her 'fad' at the Boston Baseball Grounds, further uptown and more secluded. In that event Sullivan, the celebrated owner of the celebrated tower overlooking the League grounds will certainly reap a harvest. Or perhaps Messrs. Soden, Count and Billings could be induced to open the front gates at 25 cents a bald head.

LYDIA BEGAN EARLY.

Though but Fifteen She Ran Away Through

Love for a Young Man. The Children's Society brought before Justice White at the Tombs Court to-day Lydia, the pretty fifteen-year-old daughter of John Muller, a designer in the office of Architect Bernard Levy, at 500 Broadway, who was accused of running away from

Her father, who lives at 773 East One Hun dred and Sixty-first street, was present, and stated that Lydia had run away with a young man for whom she had conceived a great it fatuation, and had lived away from home fo several weeks.

The reason Lydia gave for leaving home was that she was treated badly by both her stepmother and father, who, she said, threat-ened to shoot her, and called her bad names. Justice White talked a while with the girl. and advised her to go home and live with her father. She was released. Comedian Robson's Laundry Burned. COHASSET, Mass., Sept. 22.—A small building of Margin street, used as a laundry, and owned by Smart Rosson the comedian, took fire from an overneated stove this morning and was totally con-sumed, with about $800 worth of clothing belong-ing to Mr. Robson's family and Mr. Morton Crehore, his son-in-law.

___ The Last Card ; os, "Young Mr. Barter's Repentance," a brill-int, graphic, wholesome novel, by David Christic Marray, complete with to-morrow's Journal Only 4 cense.

O'CLOCK

MR. CROWLEY'S SUCCESSOR.

WILL HE FILL THE VOID IN MISS KITTY'S ACHING HEART?

He Is a Widower and Arrived Here From Africa Yesterday-Ills Young Son Accompanies Illm-Ile Is Not as Well Educated as the Late Pet of the Park, But Sits in a Chair and Drinks From a Cap-

Mr. O'Toole and son are registered at the Hotel Reiche, 95 Park row.

They arrived from the African Republic of Liberia by steamer vesterday accompanied by their valet.

Mr. Phelim O'Toole is a widower, though ne is scarcely three years of age, while his on is but a babe of one year. Yet Mr. O'Toole had reached a high emisence among the statesmen of Senegambia, and was a leader of the Chimpanzee party in the last election, and, by the judicious use of coccanuts and bananas, won all before him. But the loss of his most estimable wife made a complete change in him, and he gave of course, his visit to New York is due in Of course, his visit to New York is due in great part to the recent death of Mr. Crowley, of Cengral Park.

It is tumored that in his giddy youth Mr. O'Toole was for a long time divided in his preference between the lady who afterwards became his wite and Miss Kitty O'Brien, and that probably Mr. O'Toole has some special design in stopping here at this time.

When Mr. Crowley left Chimpanzes land he vacated the Earldon of Timbuctoo, to which Mr. O'Toole succeeded by appointment.

up politics and is now travelling for change

ment.
The new Earl is not by any means as hand-

The new Earl is not by any means as handsome as the late Earl Crowley, nor is he so accomplished, though he does scratch his own back in true Scottish style by taking a back hold on his chain and working himself up and down, and can drink from a rubber cup with the grace of Girofle-Girafla in the famous champagne song.
About 1,499,000 mourning friends of the late Mr. Crowley paid their respects to his possible successor at his hotel to day, and went away with a hopeful feeling in their

went away with a hopeful feeling in their

Mr. O'Toole is a little bigger than a theatrical man's silk hat, has very black, long and silky hair; ears like the sails to a fishing smack and a smile fully equal to Mr. Crow-His eyes are bazel and beautiful in their languor. He scratches his brawny bosom with his left hind hand and a pensiveness truly beautiful, and when he surveys himself in the bevelled mirror in the back wall of his co-amber his modesty makes him b ush, and he rolls himself up in his red rose blanket as he thinks what an awful mash he will make he thinks what an awful mash he will make when he meets his old love. Miss O'Brien.

Mr. O'Toole sits in the small arm-chair in one corner of his chamber with as much grace as Tom Costigan, and surveys his admirers with a calm, judicial eye. He has a doll haby, which he fondles with much happiness, for his little son has been separated from him by Mr. Reiche.

Little O'Toole is as round as a ball and his innocent baby smile is refreshing to see. If his cars had not been set so near together the top of Baby O'Toole's head would be an island when he smiles.

island when he snides.

Miss Kitty has not yet been apprised of the new arrivals, and it is not known just how she would view a proposition of marriage from a widower with an incumbrance of a son as big as herself. It would be a sort of second-hand husband.

anyway.
Supt. Conkling, still mourning the death of Crowley, hesitates to call on Mr. O'Toole, and Prof. Jake Cook says that there can be no successor to Mr. Crowley in his affection. But one love for him, and that love is dead.
Mr. O'Toole has suffered no trouble from the change of climate and ate a hearty. the change of climate, and ate a hearty breakfast of bananas and figs. He will re-ceive all day to day, his visitors, however, being requested to remain on the sidewalk.

Incendiarism Charged.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. I
LAWRENCE STATION, L. L. SEPL D. -A fire ocnrred n Westville at 2 o'clock this morning in the weiling and store of Lewis Craft, which is occuple i by Mrs. C. Fosdick, a milliner. The damage ions amounts to only $300, but the occupants of he house were hadly frigatened. The fire is be-leved to be of incendiary origin.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22. For Eastern New York Fair, slightly cooler

ceather; northeast erty The Weather To-day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer.

1898, 1887, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, 1888, RECREATION GROUNDS, Long Island City, to-morrow, SENATORS VS. COMMERCIALS. Bost game on record, **